

Christians At Work: Finding Your Calling, Making A Difference

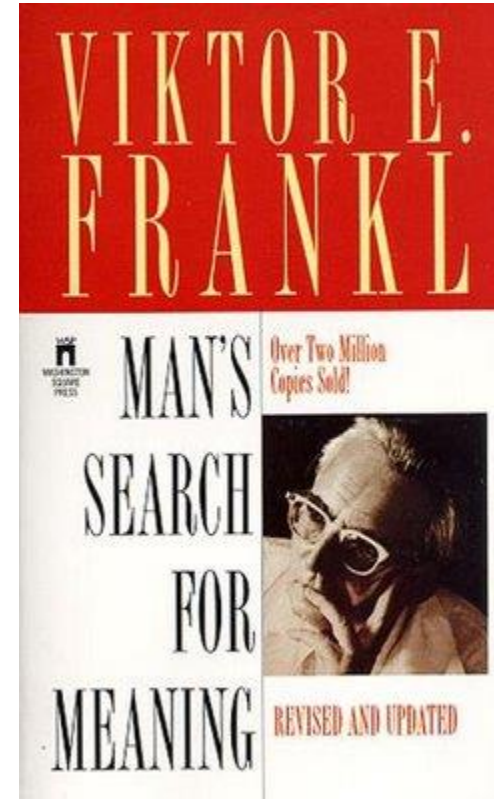

Willingdon Church,
Burnaby, BC, Canada
February 25, 2017

Richard (Rick) J. Goossen, PhD
Chairman,
Entrepreneurial Leaders
Organization

Introduction: The Pursuit of Meaning (Calling)

“Man’s search for meaning is the primary motivation in his life....This meaning is unique and specific in that it must and can only be fulfilled by him alone...”

Viktor Frankl

Introduction: The Pursuit of Meaning (Calling)

“The quest for happiness has become nothing short of a cultural obsession...the concept of happiness has become so hallowed that it is beginning to resemble a cult or religious surrogate.”

John Schumaker

Introduction: The Pursuit of Meaning (Calling)

“Neither money nor ambition nor serendipity is good enough as a work / life principle. We have to find a better answer to the question: Why do I do what I do? The answer matters.

We have only one life.”

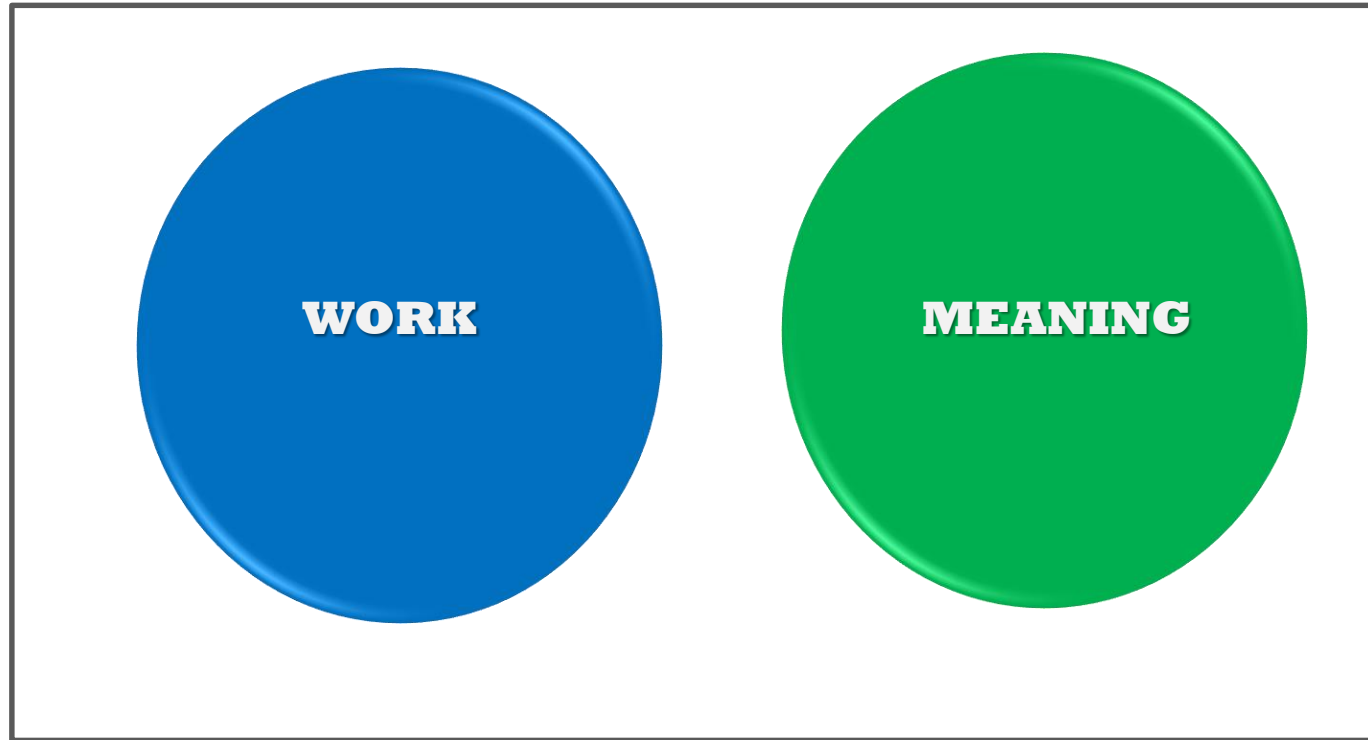

Lord Stephen Green, Former CEO and Chairman, HSBC & Keynote Speaker, Entrepreneurial Leaders Conference, Toronto, 2016

Introduction: Outline

- I. Meaning at Work: Traditional & Secular Approaches
- II. Meaning at Work: Christian Approach
- III. Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling
- IV. Christian Approach: 3 P's of Calling
- V. Christian Approach: Making A Difference

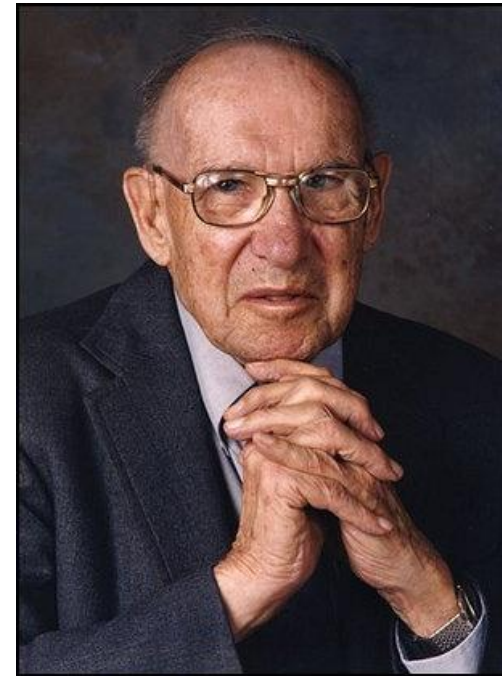

I. Meaning at Work: The Traditional Approach

I. Meaning (Calling) & Work: The Traditional Model

- Job well done
- excellence
- Important, not significant

I. Meaning at Work: Evolution of The Secular Approach

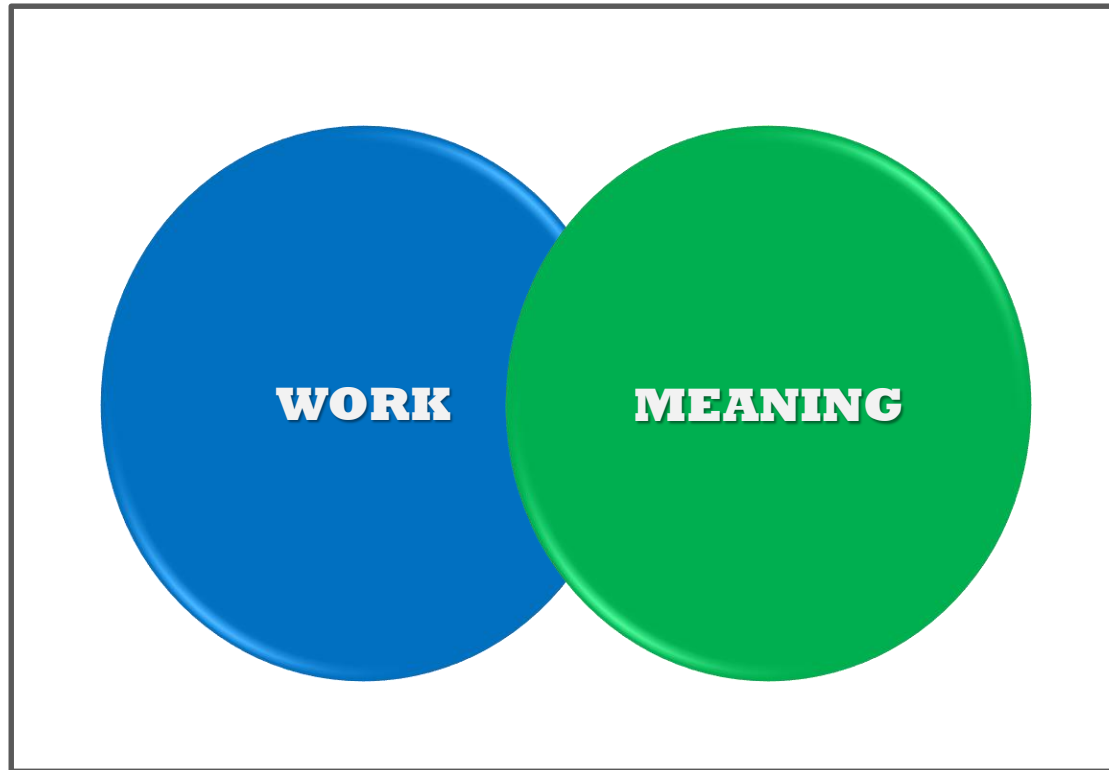

Societal Trends:

- De-institutionalization
- Relativism
- Human Potential Movement

Self-crafted “Spirituality”

I. Meaning at Work: The Secular Approach

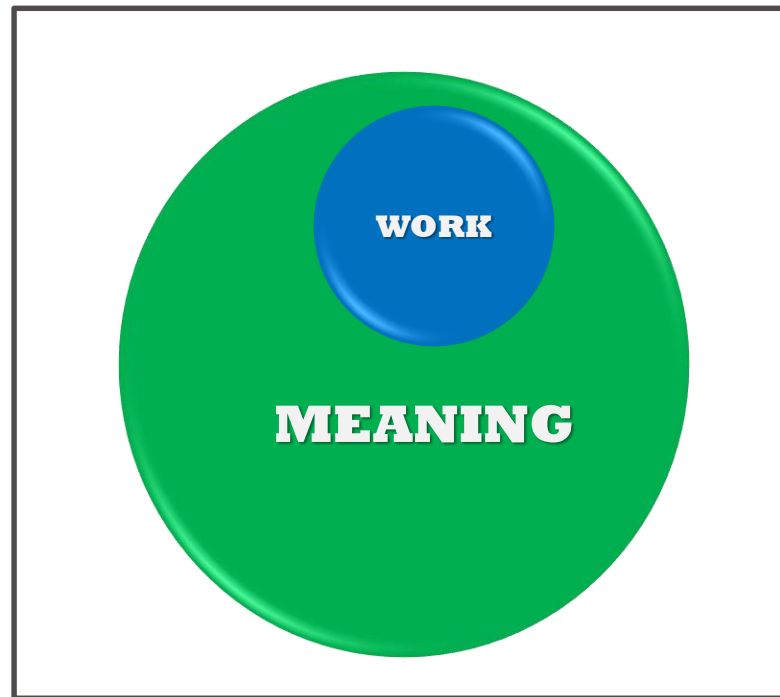

I. Meaning at Work: The Secular Approach

“But before you can determine what your role [you in your business] will be, you must ask yourself...What do I value most? What kind of life do I want? What do I want my life to look like? Who do I wish to be? Your Primary Aim is your answer to all these questions.”

II. Meaning at Work: The Christian Approach

II. Meaning At Work: The Christian Approach

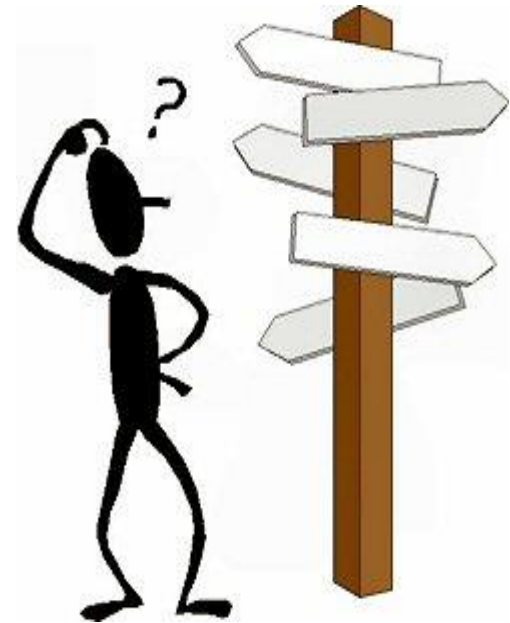

#	Secular Approach	Christian Approach
1	Self Narrative	God Narrative
2	Horizontal Laws	Vertical Laws
3	Attributes	Virtues
4	Purpose and Meaning Through Work	Calling and Meaning Through A Whole Life Offering
5	Self-Oriented Niche	Communal Gift
6	Self Help	Divine Help

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Top Five Misunderstandings
Around “Calling”:

1. Sacred / Secular
2. One-time event
3. Must be Audible
4. Calling is your job
5. Individual Pursuit

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Calling is at the Core of Our Faith:

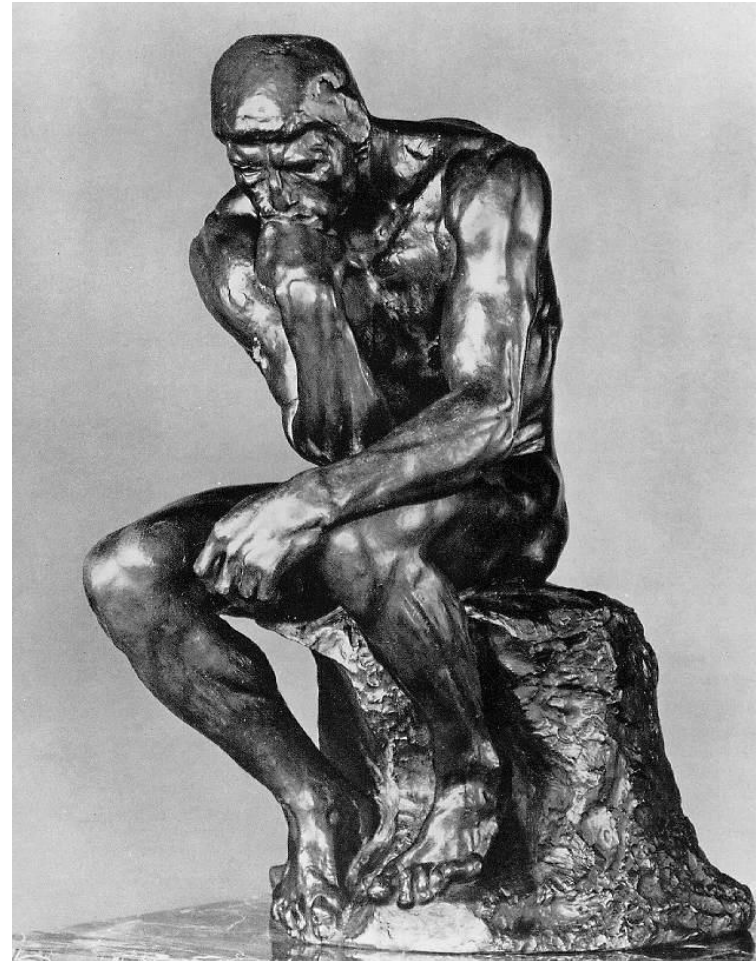

- Called in one hope (Eph 4:3)
- Called me heavenward (Phil 3:14)
- Called to eternal life (1 Tim 6:12)
- Called to His Purpose (Rom 8:28)
- Worthy of your calling (2 Thes 1:11)

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Two Dimensions of Calling

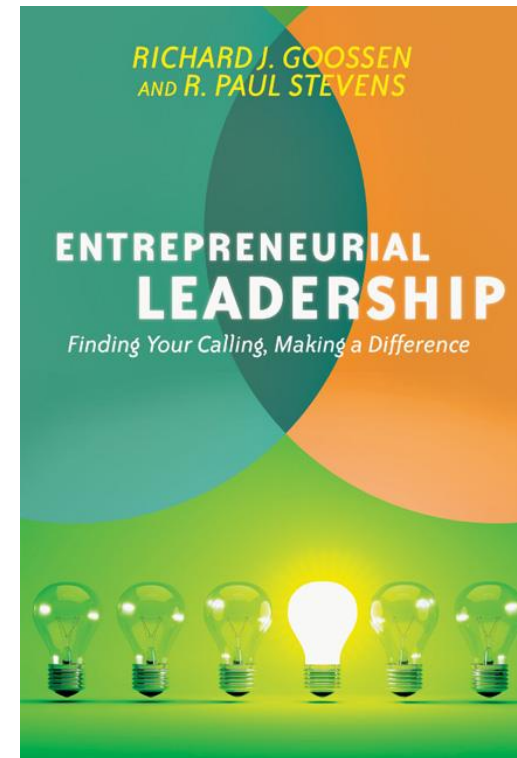

- General
- Personal

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

General Aspects of Calling:

1. Belonging to God (1 Cor 1:9)
2. Being Godlike people in behavior (Gal 5:13)
3. Doing God's work in the world (1 Pet 4:10)
4. Experiencing Life Purpose (2 Thess 1:11)

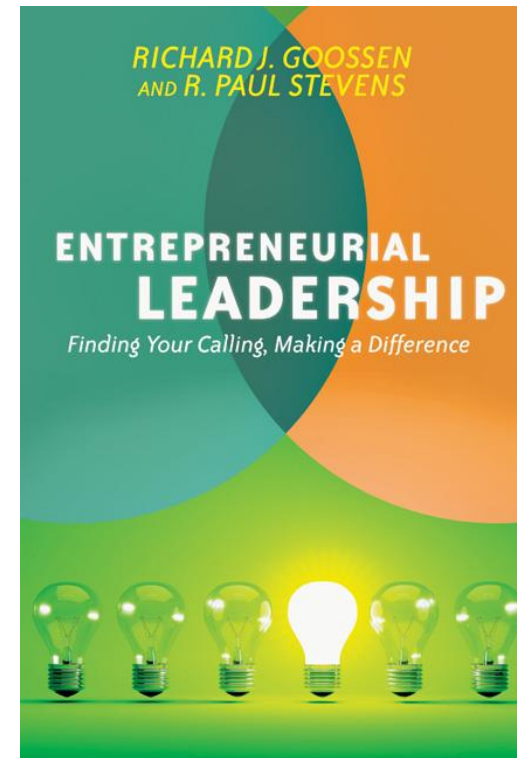

[pp 110-113]

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Personal Aspects of Calling:

1. Passion
2. Gifts / Talents
3. Providential Circumstances
4. Direct Leading of God

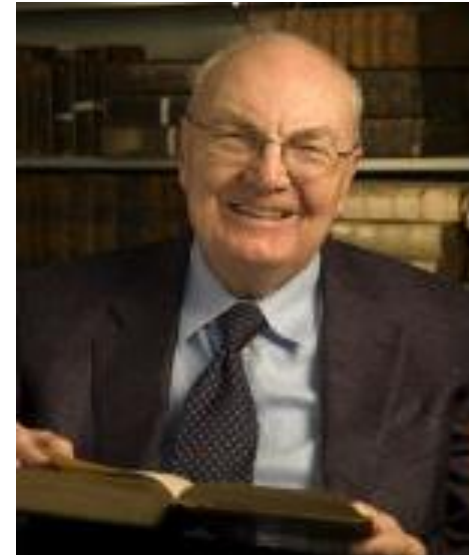

[pp 118-125]

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Pursuit of Personal Calling:

- Read Your Bible
- Develop a Heart for God
- Seek Wise Counsel
- Does this make sense?
- Divine Intervention

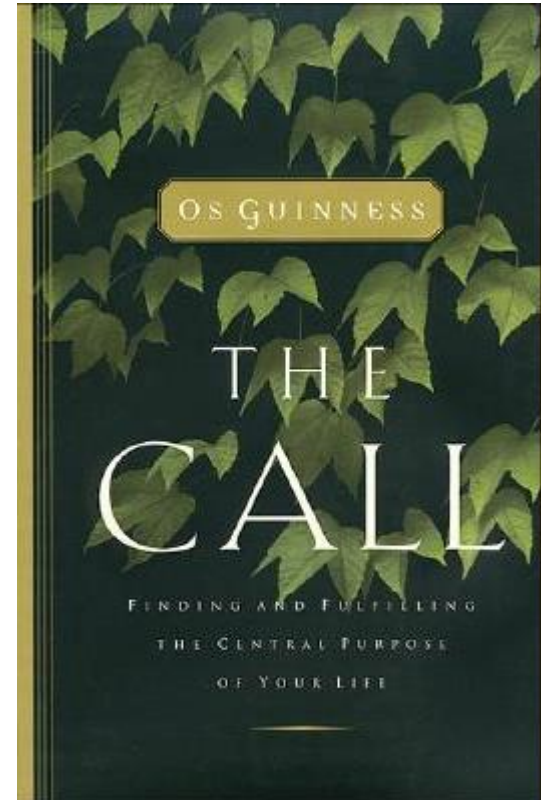

Bruce Waltke

III. Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

Os Guinness – Calling & Life's Challenges

- Purposeful Journey
- Calling v Vocation
- In God's Hands

III. The Christian Approach: Finding Your Calling

“Calling is the truth that God calls us to himself so decisively that everything we are, everything we do, and everything we have is invested with a special devotion and dynamism lived out as a response to his summons and service.”

Os Guinness

The Call: Finding and Fulfilling the Central Purpose of Your Life

IV. Christian Approach: 3 P's of Calling

P1 = Passion

“I want to be a noisy Christian. I am passionate about telling biblical stories through mass media. Christians are presently the largest and most ineffective tribe in the world.”

Mark Burnett, Hollywood Producer &
Entrepreneurial Leaders Award Recipient 2013

IV. Christian Approach: 3 P's of Calling

P2 – Purpose

“I would encourage people to think about calling in a way that appreciates the process and recognizes that God reveals himself in a step by step process without the clarity of what the destination is and being comfortable with that process .”

Bobby Gruenewald, Keynote Speaker & Entrepreneurial Leaders Award Recipient, Toronto, 2015

YouVersion®
The Bible App™

IV. Christian Approach: 3 P's of Calling

P3 - Priorities

“I have always been aware of my own mortality. I have often thought on my death bed am I going to think about the last million dollars that I have made, or the person in the prison who is dying of AIDS in Mozambique who I spoke to and became a Christian?”

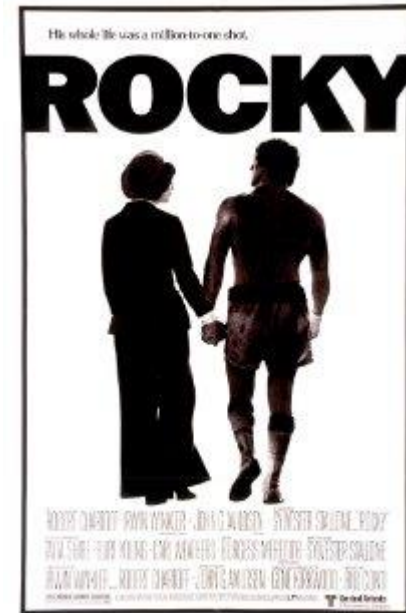

Lord Robert Edmiston, IM Group, London, UK, Keynote Speaker & Entrepreneurial Leaders Award Recipient, Vancouver, 2015

IV. Christian Approach: 3 P's of Calling

“Bonus” P4 - Perseverance!

“When everyone is telling me to throw in the towel...I want to be like Rocky in the 15th round. He looks like his face has been put through the meat grinder, yet he gets up and wins. Without that sense of calling I would not be able to get up off the mat”

Allan Burnett, The Chapels

V. Making A Difference

- Calling Applied To Work
- Excellence
- Building Relationships
- Sharing Faith Responsibly
- Dealing With Hypocrisy

V. Conclusion: Making A Difference

- “I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called...” (Eph. 4:1)
- “With this in mind [God’s final judgment and glory], we constantly pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of his calling, and that by his power he may fulfill every good purpose of yours and every act prompted by your faith.” (2 Thess. 1:11)

V. Conclusion: Making A Difference

- Difference Making is Rooted in Calling
- 3 P's:
 1. Passion
 2. Purpose
 3. Priorities

V. Conclusion: Making A Difference

“Let each man find out what God wants him to do, and then let him do it, or die in the attempt.”

Charles Spurgeon

Application Questions for Discussion

A - QUESTIONS:

1. What is my passion?
2. What are my gifts?
3. How does work fit into my meaning in life?
4. What are my priorities on a daily basis that reflect my calling (at work and at home)?

Application Questions for Discussion

A - QUESTIONS:

5. What do I do from a strategic perspective (long term) that reflects my calling?
6. How can I have an impact in my spheres of influence (family, work, church, NPOs, etc.)?
7. In light of my calling, how can I approach work differently?

Application Questions for Discussion

B - YOUR SUMMARY

After the above reflection, here are three questions to ponder:

1. What is my epitaph?
2. What is my calling?
3. What is my life verse?

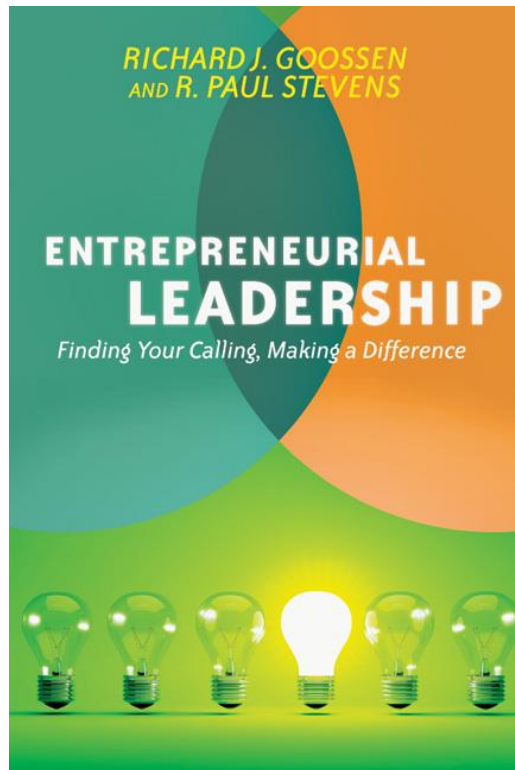

Application Questions for Discussion

C - YOUR NEXT STEPS

What are the three specific steps that I can take this week in order to start making a difference?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Book for sale at back of room

PowerPoint at:

W:

[www.entrepreneurialleaders.com/Rick
Seminars](http://www.entrepreneurialleaders.com/RickSeminars)

Contact Information:

Richard (Rick) J. Goossen, PhD

info@entrepreneurialleaders.com