3. Develop confidence in the use of their finances.
4. Improve the clarity of their communication regarding finances.
5. Demonstrate consistency of behavior that is pleasing to God.

Introduction

Class Format:

- Introduction of Topic
- Video Presentation & Review
- Small Group Discussion
- Class Discussion / Summary

Session I Objectives

1. Examine your perspective regarding money and finances.
2. Describe the five money management principles.
3. Critique the differences between a worldly and biblical financial worldview.

Introduction to Perspectives

10 “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. 11 So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? 12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own? 13 No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

Luke 16:10 – 13
